

HOW TO VOTE IN ALABAMA

A Quick Guide for People with Disabilities Voting in 2023 Local Elections

Note: Alabama only has local elections in 2023. To find out if your city/town has an election in 2023, contact the local election office.

There are lots of different words and phrases used in voting and elections. We explain some of these words and phrases in this guide. Other definitions and examples can be found in our Voting Language Resource.

There are also phrases that might change based on where you live. For example, in this guide, we use the term "local election office." In some cities and towns, this office might have a different name. Your local election office might be called the county clerk, county election commission, board of elections, or something else. You can find that information by clicking on the links for each state that we have included in the guide.

REGISTERING TO VOTE

• How can I register to vote?

- You can find out if you are already registered by visiting vote411.org.
- Register to vote online at Alabama's online voter registration website.
- Register to vote by downloading, filling out, and returning the Alabama voter registration form.

- When do I need to register? The voter registration deadline is 15 days before Election Day. Be sure to register on or before this date. In this state, voters cannot register after the deadline or on Election Day.
- Do I need an identification (ID) to register? You will need a driver's license or non-driver state ID to register to vote. You can use your Social Security number if you don't have a driver's license or non-driver state ID.
- Can I vote if I have a disability? Yes! People with disabilities who are 18 years old or older have the right to vote. Your vote matters and is protected by laws to make sure voting is accessible, independent, and private.
- Can I vote if I have a guardian? In this state, just having a guardian does not automatically take away your right to vote. However, sometimes a court may decide that you cannot vote. If you are not sure, you can check your guardianship order. If your guardianship order does not say anything about voting, this means you can still vote! Your right has only been taken away if your order directly says that. For help understanding your right to vote and guardianship, contact the local Protection and Advocacy Agency \(P&A\).
- Can I vote if I have gone to jail or prison? If you have gone to jail or prison, you should check to see if you are allowed to vote. Some states take away your right to vote if you have gone to jail or prison. Learn about voting rights for people who have gone to jail or prison. You can also learn more from the Campaign Legal Center or contact the local P&A.

LEARNING ABOUT THE ISSUES

- What is a ballot? A ballot is a list of who and what you are voting for. Your ballot will list candidates who are running for different offices, such as School Board members, City Council members, or State

Representatives. You vote by marking your choice on the ballot. If you are voting by marking a paper ballot, and not using a voting machine, make sure to look at both sides of the ballot. Sometimes, your ballot has choices on both sides.

- What is a ballot measure? Sometimes, your ballot will have ballot measures. A ballot measure is a law, issue, or question that you can vote on. Voters get to decide if they agree or disagree with the ballot measure by voting yes to agree or no to disagree. Learn about ballot measures on our resource page.
- Can I look at my ballot before I go to vote? Enter your home address in Ballotpedia's Sample Ballot Lookup. This tool will give you a "sample ballot," which will show you what will be on your ballot when you vote.

VOTING IN PERSON

- Where do I need to go to vote? The place where you go to vote in person is called a polling place. You can find your local polling place through the Alabama Secretary of State website. Find your polling place.
- Do I need an ID to vote in person? This state requires voters to show a photo ID to vote in person. The Alabama Secretary of State's website has a list of acceptable IDs that you may bring with you. Learn about voter ID.
- What if I need help with filling out my ballot? You are allowed to have someone help you fill out your ballot.
- Who can help me with filling out my ballot? You may choose someone you know to help you vote or ask for help from a poll worker at the polling place. Your boss cannot help you vote. If you are part of a labor union at work, the person who helps you vote cannot be your labor union representative. Learn about labor unions on our resource page.

- Can I vote before Election Day? This state does not allow voters to vote in person before Election Day. You will need to vote on Election Day if you are voting in person. If you will be away from home on Election Day, you can vote by absentee ballot. Learn about voting by absentee ballot below.
- Can I vote outside of the polling place if it is inaccessible? This state does not allow voters to vote outside the polling place if it is inaccessible. If the polling place is inaccessible, you can contact the Secretary of State's office for assistance or vote by absentee ballot.

VOTING BY MAIL

- Can I vote by mail? If you have a disability or you will be away from home on Election Day, you can vote by mail in this state. This is called absentee voting. (If a polling place is not accessible to people with disabilities, this is another way for you to vote.)
- Do I need an ID to vote by absentee ballot? In this state, voters need to include a copy of a valid photo ID when requesting an absentee ballot.
- How do I request an absentee ballot? You must request an absentee ballot through the local election office by mail or in person. Request your ballot.
- Can I get an electronic absentee ballot? This state does not have an electronic absentee ballot available for voters with disabilities, so you must vote on a paper ballot.
- What is the deadline for requesting my ballot? The last day to request an absentee ballot by mail is 7 days before Election Day. The last day to request an absentee ballot at the local election office is 5 days before Election Day. Request your ballot as soon as possible to make sure that you receive it on time.

- What if I need help with filling out my ballot? You are allowed to have someone help you fill out your ballot.
- Do I need to sign my ballot envelope? Follow the instructions on the envelope to sign your envelope when asked. Your ballot will not be counted if your signature is missing. The ballot envelope also must either be signed by two witnesses who are over 18 years old or be notarized by a notary. A notary is someone that is appointed by the state government to witness signatures on important documents. Learn about notaries on our resource page.
- How do I return my ballot? You can return your ballot by mail or deliver it to the local election office. If you are returning your ballot by mail, it must be received by 12 p.m. (noon) on Election Day. If you deliver your ballot, it must be received by close of business on the day before the election.
- Can someone return my ballot for me? No, only the voter may return their ballot to the local election office unless they are having a medical emergency. If you are having a medical emergency, you may have someone return your ballot for you.
- Can I track my ballot? Yes, you can track your ballot online to see if the local election office has received it. You can do this on the Alabama Secretary of State's website. Track your ballot.

MORE VOTING HELP
