

HOW TO VOTE IN COLORADO

A Quick Guide for People with Disabilities Voting in 2023 Local Elections

Note: Colorado only has local elections in 2023. To find out if your city/town has an election in 2023, contact the local election office.

There are lots of different words and phrases used in voting and elections. We explain some of these words and phrases in this guide. Other definitions and examples can be found in our Voting Language Resource.

There are also phrases that might change based on where you live. For example, in this guide, we use the term "local election office." In some cities and towns, this office might have a different name. Your local election office might be called the county clerk, county election commission, board of elections, or something else. You can find that information by clicking on the links for each state that we have included in the guide.

LEARNING ABOUT THE ISSUES

- What is a ballot? A ballot is a list of who and what you are voting for. Your ballot will list candidates who are running for different offices, such as School Board members, City Council members, or State Representatives. You vote by marking your choice on the ballot. If you are voting by marking a paper ballot, and not using a voting machine, make sure to look at both sides of the ballot. Sometimes, your ballot has choices on both sides.

- What is a ballot measure? Sometimes, your ballot will have ballot measures. A ballot measure is a law, issue, or question that you can vote on. Voters get to decide if they agree or disagree with the ballot measure by voting yes to agree or no to disagree. Learn about ballot measures on our resource page.
- Can I look at my ballot before I go to vote? Enter your home address in Ballotpedia's Sample Ballot Lookup. This tool will give you a "sample ballot," which will show you what will be on your ballot when you vote.

VOTING IN PERSON

- Where do I need to go to vote? Most voters in this state vote by mail. Learn about voting by mail below. If you need help voting or you want to vote in person, you can go to a voter service and polling center. You can find your local voter service and polling center through the Colorado Secretary of State's website. Find your voter service and polling center.
- Do I need an ID to vote in person? This state requires voters to show an ID when voting in person. Learn about voter ID.

- Who can help me with filling out my ballot? You may choose someone you know to help you vote or ask for help from a poll worker at the voter service and polling center. Your boss cannot help you vote. If you are part of a labor union at work, the person who helps you vote cannot be your labor union representative. Learn about labor unions on our resource page.
- Can I vote before Election Day? This state allows any voter to vote in person before Election Day during the Early Voting period. The Early Voting period starts 15 days before Election Day. Contact the local election office for more information.

- Can I vote outside of the voter service and polling center if it is inaccessible? This state does not usually allow people to vote outside the voter service and polling center if it is inaccessible.
