

HOW TO VOTE IN DELAWARE

A Quick Guide for People with Disabilities Voting in the 2024 Presidential Primary Election on Tuesday, April 2, 2024

Note: There are lots of different words and phrases used in voting and elections. We explain some of these words and phrases in this guide. Other definitions and examples can be found in our Voting Language Resource.

There are also phrases that might change based on where you live. For example, in this guide, we use the term "local election office." In some cities and towns, this office might have a different name. Your local election office might be called the county clerk, county election commission, board of elections, or something else. You can find that information by clicking on the links for each state that we have included in the guide.

REGISTERING TO VOTE

• How can I register to vote?

- You can find out if you are already registered by visiting vote411.org.
- Register to vote online at Delaware's online voter registration website.
- Register to vote by downloading, filling out, and returning the Delaware voter registration form.

- When do I need to register? The voter registration deadline is Saturday, March 9. Be sure to register on or before this date. In this state, voters cannot register after the deadline or on Election Day.
- Do I need an identification (ID) to register? If you are registering to vote online, you will need a driver's license or non-driver state ID to register to vote. You can use your Social Security number if you don't have a driver's license or non-driver state ID. If you are registering to vote in person, you must provide something that shows your name and address. You can show a driver's license or non-driver state ID, utility bill, bank statement, credit card statement, your paycheck, or other state-allowed document. Learn about ID when registering to vote.
- Can I vote if I have a disability? Yes! People with disabilities who are 18 years old or older have the right to vote. Your vote matters and is protected by laws to make sure voting is accessible, independent, and private.
- Can I vote if I have a guardian? In this state, just having a guardian does not automatically take away your right to vote. However, sometimes a court may decide that you cannot vote. If you are not sure, you can check your guardianship order. If your guardianship order does not say anything about voting, this means you can still vote! Your right has only been taken away if your order directly says that. For help understanding your right to vote and guardianship, contact the local Protection and Advocacy Agency \(P&A\).
- Can I vote if I have gone to jail or prison? If you have gone to jail or prison, you should check to see if you are allowed to vote. Some states take away your right to vote if you have gone to jail or prison. LEARNING ABOUT THE ISSUES

- What is a primary election? In some elections, only one person from each political party can run for an elected official position. For example, only 1 Democrat candidate and 1 Republican candidate can run in a race to become the President. But many people want to be President, so the state hosts two elections. In the first election, every party votes on who their candidate will be. This is a primary election. Then, there is a second election that happens later with the winners of the primary election. This is the general election. In the general election, everyone votes for which of these candidates they want to elect to each office.
- What is a ballot? A ballot is a list of who and what you are voting for. Your ballot will list the candidates who are running for President. You vote by marking your choice on the ballot. If you are voting by marking a paper ballot and not using a voting machine, make sure to look at both sides of the ballot. Sometimes, your ballot has choices on both sides.
- What is a ballot measure? Sometimes, your ballot will have ballot measures. A ballot measure is a law, issue, or question that you can vote on. Voters get to decide if they agree or disagree with the ballot measure by voting yes to agree or no to disagree. Learn about ballot measures on our resource page.
- Can I look at my ballot before I go to vote? Enter your home address in Ballotpedia's Sample Ballot Lookup. This tool will give you a "sample ballot," which will show you what will be on your ballot when you vote.

VOTING IN PERSON

- Where do I need to go to vote? The place where you go to vote in person is called a polling place. You can find your local polling place through the Delaware Department of Elections website. Find your polling place.
- Do I need an ID to vote in person? This state asks voters to show an ID to vote in person. If you do not show an ID, you must fill out a form before you can vote. Learn about voter ID.
- What if I need help with filling out my ballot? You are allowed to have someone help you fill out your ballot.
- Who can help me with filling out my ballot? You may choose someone you know to help you vote or ask for help from a poll worker at the polling place. Your boss cannot help you vote. If you are part of a labor union at work, the person who helps you vote cannot be your labor union representative. Learn about labor unions on our resource page.
- Can I vote before Election Day? This state allows any voter to vote in person before Election Day during the Early Voting period. The early voting period starts on Wednesday, March 20 and ends the Sunday, March 30. Vote early to avoid lines on Election Day!
- Can I vote outside of the polling place if it is inaccessible? This state does not usually allow people to vote outside the polling place if it is inaccessible. You can contact the local election office to see if they will make this accommodation. You can also contact the Department of Elections for assistance or vote by mail.

VOTING BY MAIL

- Can I vote by mail? If you have a disability or are away from home on Election Day, you can vote by mail in this state. This is called absentee voting. (If a polling place is not accessible to people with disabilities, this is another way for you to vote.)
- Do I need an ID to vote by absentee ballot? No, you do not need an ID when voting by absentee ballot unless you are voting for the first time in a federal election in Delaware. Federal elections happen in even-numbered years. Learn about federal elections on our resource page.
- How do I request an absentee ballot? You must request an absentee ballot online or through the local election office in person or by mail. Request your ballot.
- Can I get an electronic absentee ballot? This state allows some voters with disabilities to request an electronic absentee ballot that they can fill out and return by fax or email. You must request an electronic absentee ballot when you apply for an absentee ballot and write down your email address or fax number. Learn about electronic absentee voting in Connecticut.
- What is the deadline for requesting my ballot? The last day to request an absentee ballot online or by mail is Thursday, March 28. The last day to request an absentee ballot at the local election office is by 12 p.m. (noon) the day before Election Day, Monday, April 1. Request your ballot as soon as possible to make sure that you receive your ballot on time.
- What if I need help with filling out my ballot? You are allowed to have someone help you fill out your ballot. That person cannot be your boss, union representative if you are part of a labor union, or a candidate who is currently running for office and whose name is on the ballot you are voting on.

- Do I need to sign my ballot envelope? Follow the instructions on the envelope to sign your envelope when asked. Your vote will not be counted if your signature is missing.
- How do I return my ballot? You can return your ballot by mail or deliver it to the local election office or a drop box. Voters with disabilities who receive an electronic ballot can return their ballot electronically. Your ballot must be received by 8 p.m. on Election Day, Tuesday, April 2.
- Can someone return my ballot for me? Yes, you may choose to have someone return your ballot for you.
- Can I track my ballot? Yes, you can track your ballot online to see if the local election office has received it. You can do this on the Delaware Department of Elections website. Track your ballot.
