

HOW TO VOTE IN INDIANA

A Quick Guide for People with Disabilities Voting in the Primary Election on Tuesday, May 7, 2024

Note: There are lots of different words and phrases used in voting and elections. We explain some of these words and phrases in this guide. Other definitions and examples can be found in our Voting Language Resource.

There are also phrases that might change based on where you live. For example, in this guide, we use the term "local election office." In some cities and towns, this office might have a different name. Your local election office might be called the county clerk, county election commission, board of elections, or something else. You can find that information by clicking on the links for each state that we have included in the guide.

LEARNING ABOUT THE ISSUES

- What is a primary election? In some elections, only one person from each political party can run for an elected official position. For example, only 1 Democrat candidate and 1 Republican candidate can run in a race to become a President or Senator. But many people want to be elected officials, so the state hosts two elections. In the first election, every party votes on who their candidate will be. This is a primary election. Then, there is a second election that happens later with the winners of the primary election. This is the general election. In the general election, everyone votes for which of these candidates they want to elect to each office.
- What is a ballot? A ballot is a list of who and what you are voting for. Your ballot will list candidates who are running for different offices, such as President, Senator, or Member of Congress. You vote by marking your choice on the ballot. If you are voting by marking a paper ballot and not using a voting machine, make sure to look at both sides of the ballot. Sometimes, your ballot has choices on both sides.

- What is a ballot measure? Sometimes, your ballot will have ballot measures. A ballot measure is a law, issue, or question that you can vote on. Voters get to decide if they agree or disagree with the ballot measure by voting yes to agree or no to disagree. Learn about ballot measures on our resource page.
- Can I look at my ballot before I go to vote? Enter your home address in Ballotpedia's Sample Ballot Lookup. This tool will give you a "sample ballot," which will show you what will be on your ballot when you vote.

VOTING IN PERSON

- Where do I need to go to vote? The place where you go to vote in person is called a polling place or vote center. You can find your local polling place or vote center through the Indiana Secretary of State's website. Find your polling place or vote center.
- Do I need an ID to vote in person? This state requires voters to show a government-issued photo ID to vote in person. Learn about voter ID.
- What if I need help with filling out my ballot? You are allowed to have someone help you fill out your ballot. The person who helps you must sign a form called an affidavit. An affidavit is a written statement. When someone signs an affidavit, they promise that they are telling the truth.
- Who can help me with filling out my ballot? You may choose someone you know to help you vote or ask for help from a poll worker at the polling place or vote center. Your boss cannot help you vote. If you are part of a labor union at work, the person who helps you vote cannot be your labor union representative. Learn about labor unions on our resource page.

- Can I vote before Election Day? This state allows any voter to vote in person before Election Day. In Indiana, this is called "In-Person Absentee Voting." During in-person absentee voting, voters can go to the election office or a polling place before Election Day to vote in person. In-Person Absentee Voting starts on Tuesday, April 9 and ends on Monday, May 6.
- Can I vote outside of the polling place or vote center if it is inaccessible? This state does not usually allow people to vote outside the polling place or vote center if it is inaccessible. You can contact the local election office to see if they will make this accommodation. You can also contact the Secretary of State's office for assistance or vote by absentee ballot.

VOTING BY MAIL

- Can I vote by mail? If you have a disability or you will be away from home on Election Day, you can vote by mail in this state. This is called absentee voting. (If a polling place or vote center is not accessible to people with disabilities, this is another way for you to vote.)
- Do I need an ID to vote by absentee ballot? You must include your Indiana driver's license number, non-driver state ID number, voter identification number, or the last four digits of your Social Security number when requesting an absentee ballot. If you don't have any of these numbers, you can include a copy of government-issued photo ID with your request. You do not have to include a copy of an ID when you return your ballot.
- How do I request an absentee ballot? You must request an absentee ballot online or through the local election office in person, by mail, or by email. Request your ballot.
- Can I get an electronic absentee ballot? This state allows voters who are blind or have low vision to request an electronic ballot that they can fill out on their computer and return through email. You must fill out the “Voters with Print Disabilities Combined Voter Registration and Absentee Ballot Application.” Request an electronic absentee ballot.

- What is the deadline for requesting my ballot? The last day to request a ballot is Thursday, April 25. Request your ballot as soon as possible to make sure that you receive your ballot on time.
- What if I need help with filling out my ballot? You are allowed to have someone help you fill out your ballot. That person cannot be your boss or union representative if you're part of a labor union. Learn about labor unions on our resource page. The person who helps you must complete a statement on the ballot envelope called the Affidavit of Assistance. An affidavit is a written statement. When someone signs an affidavit, they promise that they are telling the truth.
- Do I need to sign my ballot envelope? Follow the instructions on the envelope to sign your envelope when asked. This state requires this signature to match the signature on your voter registration form.
- How do I return my ballot? You can return your ballot by mail or deliver it to your local election office. Voters who are blind or have low vision and received an electronic absentee ballot may be able to return their ballot through email. Contact the local election office for more information. Your ballot must be received by 6 p.m. on Election Day, Tuesday, May 7.
- Can someone return my ballot for me? You may have a member of your household put the ballot in the return envelope for you, seal it, and return it. The person who helps you must sign a statement on the envelope called the Affidavit of Assistance.
- Can I track my ballot? Yes, you can track your ballot online to see if the local election office has received it. You can do this on the Indiana Secretary of State's website. Track your ballot.
