

HOW TO VOTE IN LOUISIANA

A Quick Guide for People with Disabilities Voting in the Primary Election on Saturday, March 23, 2024

Note: There are lots of different words and phrases used in voting and elections. We explain some of these words and phrases in this guide. Other definitions and examples can be found in our Voting Language Resource.

There are also phrases that might change based on where you live. For example, in this guide, we use the term "local election office." In some cities and towns, this office might have a different name. Your local election office might be called the county clerk, county election commission, board of elections, or something else. You can find that information by clicking on the links for each state that we have included in the guide.

REGISTERING TO VOTE

- How can I register to vote?
 - You can find out if you are already registered by visiting vote411.org.
 - Register to vote online at Louisiana's online voter registration website.
 - Register to vote by downloading, filling out, and returning the Louisiana voter registration form.
- When do I need to register? The deadline to register to vote in person or by mail is Wednesday, February 21. The deadline to register to vote online is Saturday, March 2. In this state, voters cannot register after this date or on Election Day.

- Do I need an identification (ID) to register? You will need a driver's license or non-driver state ID to register to vote. You can use your Social Security number if you don't have a driver's license or non-driver state ID.
- Can I vote if I have a disability? Yes! People with disabilities who are 18 years old or older have the right to vote. Your vote matters and is protected by laws to make sure voting is accessible, independent, and private.
- Can I vote if I have a guardian? In this state, most people with guardians cannot vote. However, you can go to a judge to try to get your right to vote back. If you have done this already, your guardianship order will say that you can still vote. If your guardianship order doesn't say anything about voting, that means you cannot vote. For help understanding your right to vote and guardianship, contact the local Protection and Advocacy Agency \(P&A\).
- Can I vote if I have gone to jail or prison? If you have gone to jail or prison, you should check to see if you are allowed to vote. Some states take away your right to vote if you have gone to jail or prison. Learn about voting rights for people who have gone to jail or prison. You can also learn more from the Campaign Legal Center or contact the local P&A.

LEARNING ABOUT THE ISSUES

- What is a primary election? In some elections, only 1 person from each political party can run for an elected official position. For example, only 1 Democrat candidate and 1 Republican candidate can run in a race to become a President or Senator. But lots of people want to be elected officials, so the state hosts two elections. In the first election, every party votes on who their candidate will be. This is called a primary election. Then, there is a second election that happens later with the winners of the primary election. This is called the general election. In the general election, everyone votes for which of these candidates they want to be elected to each office.

- What is a ballot? A ballot is a list of who and what you are voting for. Your ballot will list candidates who are running for different offices, such as President, Senator, or Member of Congress. You vote by marking your choice on the ballot. If you are voting by marking a paper ballot and not using a voting machine, make sure to look at both sides of the ballot. Sometimes, your ballot has choices on both sides.
- Can I look at my ballot before I go to vote? Enter your home address in Ballotpedia's Sample Ballot Lookup. This tool will give you a "sample ballot," which will show you what will be on your ballot when you vote.

VOTING IN PERSON

- Where do I need to go to vote? The place where you go to vote in person is called a polling place. You can find your local polling place through the Louisiana Secretary of State's website. Find your polling place.
- Do I need an ID to vote in person? This state requires voters to show a photo ID to vote. If you do not have a photo ID, you can sign an affidavit to vote in person. An affidavit is a written statement. When someone signs an affidavit, they promise that they are telling the truth. Learn about voter ID.
- What if I need help with filling out my ballot? You are allowed to have someone help you fill out your ballot. You must tell the local election office that you need help with voting before you go to vote. You can do this by filing a statement with the local election office in person or by mail. Contact the local election office for more information.
- Who can help me with filling out my ballot? You may choose someone you know to help you vote or ask for help from a poll worker at the polling place. Your boss cannot help you vote. If you are part of a labor union at work, the person who helps you vote cannot be your labor union representative. Learn about labor unions on our resource page. Your helper cannot be a candidate who is currently running for office and whose name is on the ballot you are voting on, or a staff member from a state-owned developmental center.

- Can I vote before Election Day? This state allows any voter to vote in person before Election Day during the Early Voting period. You can vote between Saturday, March 9 and Saturday, March 16, except for Sunday, March 10, between 8:30 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. to avoid lines on Election Day!
- Can I vote outside of the polling place if it is inaccessible? This state does not usually allow people to vote outside the polling place if it is inaccessible. You can contact the local election office to see if they will make this accommodation. You can also contact the Secretary of State's office for assistance or vote by absentee ballot.

VOTING BY MAIL

- Can I vote by mail? If you have a documented disability or you will be away from home on Election Day, you can vote by mail in this state. This is called absentee voting. (If a polling place is not accessible to people with disabilities, this is another way for you to vote.)
- Do I need an ID to vote by absentee ballot? You will need to include a Louisiana driver's license or non-driver state ID number when you apply for an absentee ballot. You do not need to include a copy of ID when returning your ballot.
- How do I request an absentee ballot? You must request an absentee ballot online or from the local election office by mail, in person, or by fax. Request your ballot.

- Can I get an electronic absentee ballot? This state allows voters with disabilities to request an electronic absentee ballot. They can fill out the ballot on their computer, print it, and return the ballot. Request an electronic ballot.
- What is the deadline for requesting my ballot? The last day to request a ballot is Friday, March 15 by 4:30 p.m. If you are hospitalized, the last day to request your absentee ballot is Monday, March 18 by 4:30 p.m. Request your ballot as soon as possible to make sure that you receive your ballot on time.
- What if I need help with filling out my ballot? You are allowed to have someone help you fill out your ballot. The person who helps you may need to complete a form called an affidavit to be returned with the ballot. An affidavit is a written statement. When someone signs an affidavit, they promise that they are telling the truth.
- Do I need to sign my ballot envelope? Follow the instructions on the envelope to sign your envelope when asked. Your ballot will not be counted if your signature is missing. You must also have someone sign your ballot as a witness.
- How do I return my ballot? You can return your ballot by mail or deliver it to the local election office. Some voters are allowed to fax their ballot as an accommodation. Contact the local election office if you need to fax your ballot. Your ballot must be received by the day before Election Day, Monday, March 18, at 4:30 p.m. If you are hospitalized, your ballot must be received by Election Day, Tuesday, March 19 at 8:00 p.m.
- Can someone return my ballot for me? Yes, you may choose to have a family member return your ballot for you. They must complete and sign a form called an affidavit on the ballot envelope.
- Can I track my ballot? Yes, you can track your ballot online to see if the local election office has received it. You can do this on the Louisiana Secretary of State's website. Track your ballot.
