

HOW TO VOTE IN PENNSYLVANIA

A Quick Guide for People with Disabilities Voting in the Primary Election on Tuesday, April 23, 2024

Note: There are lots of different words and phrases used in voting and elections. We explain some of these words and phrases in this guide. Other definitions and examples can be found in our Voting Language Resource.

There are also phrases that might change based on where you live. For example, in this guide, we use the term "local election office." In some cities and towns, this office might have a different name. Your local election office might be called the county clerk, county election commission, board of elections, or something else. You can find that information by clicking on the links for each state that we have included in the guide.

REGISTERING TO VOTE

• How can I register to vote?

- You can find out if you are already registered by visiting vote411.org.

- Register to vote by downloading, filling out, and returning the Pennsylvania voter registration form.

- When do I need to register? The voter registration deadline is Monday, April 8th. Be sure to register on or before this date. In this state, voters cannot register after the deadline or on Election Day.
- Do I need an identification (ID) to register? You will need a driver's license or non-driver state ID to register to vote. You can use your Social Security number if you don't have a driver's license or non-driver state ID.
- Can I vote if I have a disability? Yes! People with disabilities who are 18 years old or older have the right to vote. Your vote matters and is protected by laws to make sure voting is accessible, independent, and private.
- Can I vote if I have a guardian? In this state, if you have a guardian, you can still vote. For help understanding your right to vote and guardianship, contact the local Protection and Advocacy Agency \(P&A\).
- Can I vote if I have gone to jail or prison? If you have gone to jail or prison, you should check to see if you are allowed to vote. Some states take away your right to vote if you have gone to jail or prison. Learn about voting rights for people who have gone to jail or prison. LEARNING ABOUT THE ISSUES

- What is a primary election? In some elections, only one person from each political party can run for an elected official position. For example, only 1 Democrat candidate and 1 Republican candidate can run in a race to become a President or Senator. But many people want to be elected officials, so the state hosts two elections. In the first election, every party votes on who their candidate will be. This is a primary election. Then, there is a second election that happens later with the winners of the primary election. This is the general election. In the general election, everyone votes for which of these candidates they want to elect to each office.

- What is a ballot? A ballot is a list of who and what you are voting for. Your ballot will list candidates who are running for different offices, such as President, Senator, or Member of Congress. You vote by marking your choice on the ballot. If you are voting by marking a paper ballot and not using a voting machine, make sure to look at both sides of the ballot. Sometimes, your ballot has choices on both sides.
- What is a ballot measure? Sometimes, your ballot will have ballot measures. A ballot measure is a law, issue, or question that you can vote on. Voters get to decide if they agree or disagree with the ballot measure by voting yes to agree or no to disagree. Learn about ballot measures on our resource page.
- Can I look at my ballot before I go to vote? Enter your home address in Ballotpedia's Sample Ballot Lookup. This tool will give you a "sample ballot," which will show you what will be on your ballot when you vote.

VOTING IN PERSON

- Where do I need to go to vote? The place where you go to vote in person is called a polling place. You can find your local polling place through the Pennsylvania Department of State website. Find your polling place.
- Do I need an ID to vote in person? This state requires voters to show a photo ID or a non-photo ID that shows the voter's name and address. If you don't have an ID, you can vote with a provisional ballot. A provisional ballot is a type of ballot that is kept apart from other ballots. A provisional ballot will be counted if the local election office decides you are eligible to vote. Learn about voter ID.
- What if I need help with filling out my ballot? You are allowed to have someone help you fill out your ballot. If it is the first time you need help with voting, you will need to fill out a form called an affidavit. An affidavit is a written statement. When someone signs an affidavit, they promise that they are telling the truth.

- Who can help me with filling out my ballot? You may choose someone you know to help you vote or ask for help from a poll worker at the polling place. Your boss cannot help you vote. If you are part of a labor union at work, the person who helps you vote cannot be your labor union representative. Learn about labor unions on our resource page.
- Can I vote before Election Day? This state allows any voter to vote in person before Election Day at the local election office. Voters can do this during a period called the "In-Person Absentee Voting period." The start date for this period is set by the local election office, and the last day to vote in person by absentee ballot is Tuesday, April 16th. Contact the local election office to learn about in-person absentee voting in your county.
- Can I vote outside of the polling place if it is inaccessible? This state does not allow voters to vote outside the polling place if it is inaccessible. If the polling place is inaccessible, you can contact the Department of State for assistance or vote by mail.

VOTING BY MAIL

- Can I vote by mail? There are two ways to vote by mail in Pennsylvania: mail-in ballots and absentee ballots. Any voter in this state can vote with a mail-in ballot. Only voters with disabilities and voters who are away from home on Election Day can use an absentee ballot. (If a polling place is not accessible to people with disabilities, this is another way for you to vote.) If you're not sure if you should vote by mail-in ballot or absentee ballot, contact the local election office for help.
- Do I need an ID to vote by mail? You must include your Pennsylvania driver's license number, PennDOT photo ID number, or the last 4 digits of your Social Security number when you apply for a mail-in ballot or absentee ballot. If you do not have these, you must include a copy of photo ID that shows your name, photo, and a current expiration date. If you are a voter with a disability, you might not be required to include this information. Contact the local election office for more information. You do not need to include a copy of ID when you return your ballot.

- How do I request an absentee or mail ballot? You must request an absentee or mail ballot online, or from the local election office by mail or in person. Request your ballot.
- Can I get an electronic absentee or mail ballot? This state allows voters with disabilities to request an electronic ballot. Pennsylvania calls this an “accessible remote ballot.” They can fill out the ballot on their computer, print it, and return the ballot. You must request an accessible remote ballot online or by mail after applying for a mail-in or absentee ballot. Request an accessible remote ballot.
- What is the deadline for requesting my ballot? The last day to request your ballot is Tuesday, April 16 by 5 p.m. Request your ballot as soon as possible to make sure that you receive your ballot on time.
- What if I need help with filling out my ballot? You are allowed to have someone help you fill out your ballot.
- Do I need to sign my ballot envelope? Follow the instructions on the envelope to sign your envelope when asked. Your ballot will not be counted if your signature is missing.
- How do I return my ballot? You can return your ballot by mail or deliver it to the local election office. Some counties may have ballot drop boxes. Your ballot must be received by 8 p.m. on Election Day, Tuesday, April 23rd.
- Can someone return my ballot for me? You may choose to have someone deliver and return your ballot for you if you have a disability. This person is called a Designated Agent. You must fill out a form and give it to the local election office to choose someone to be your Designated Agent. Fill out the Designated Agent form.

- Can I track my ballot? Yes, you can track your ballot online to see if the local election office has received it. You can do this on the Pennsylvania Department of State website. Track your ballot.
