

HOW TO VOTE IN TEXAS

A Quick Guide for People with Disabilities Voting in Primary Election on Tuesday, March 5, 2024

Note: There are lots of different words and phrases used in voting and elections. We explain some of these words and phrases in this guide. Other definitions and examples can be found in our Voting Language Resource.

There are also phrases that might change based on where you live. For example, in this guide, we use the term "local election office." In some cities and towns, this office might have a different name. Your local election office might be called the county clerk, county election commission, board of elections, or something else. You can find that information by clicking on the links for each state that we have included in the guide.

REGISTERING TO VOTE

- How can I register to vote?
  - You can find out if you are already registered by visiting vote411.org.
  - Register to vote online at Texas's online voter registration website.
  - Register to vote by downloading, filling out, and returning the Texas voter registration form.
- When do I need to register? The voter registration deadline is Monday, February 5. Be sure to register on or before this date. In this state, voters cannot register after the deadline or on Election Day.

- Do I need an identification (ID) to register? You will need a driver's license or non-driver state ID to register to vote. You can use your Social Security number if you don't have a driver's license or non-driver state ID.
- Can I vote if I have a disability? Yes! People with disabilities who are 18 years old or older have the right to vote. Your vote matters and is protected by laws to make sure voting is accessible, independent, and private.
- Can I vote if I have a guardian? In this state, just having a guardian does not automatically take away your right to vote. However, sometimes a court may decide that you cannot vote. If you are not sure, you can check your guardianship order. If your guardianship order does not say anything about voting, this means you can still vote! Your right has only been taken away if your order directly says that. For help understanding your right to vote and guardianship, contact the local Protection and Advocacy Agency \(P&A\).
- Can I vote if I have gone to jail or prison? If you have gone to jail or prison, you should check to see if you are allowed to vote. Some states take away your right to vote if you have gone to jail or prison. Learn about voting rights for people who have gone to jail or prison. You can also learn more from the Campaign Legal Center or contact the local P&A.

LEARNING ABOUT THE ISSUES

- What is a primary election? In some elections, only 1 person from each political party can run for an elected official position. For example, only 1 Democrat candidate and 1 Republican candidate can run in a race to become a President or Senator. But lots of people want to be elected officials, so the state hosts two elections. In the first election, every party votes on who their candidate will be. This is called a primary election. Then, there is a second election that happens later with the winners of the primary election. This is called the general election. In the general election, everyone votes for which of these candidates they want to be elected to each office.

- What is a ballot? A ballot is a list of who and what you are voting for. Your ballot will list candidates who are running for different offices, such as President, Senator, or Member of Congress. You vote by marking your choice on the ballot. If you are voting by marking a paper ballot and not using a voting machine, make sure to look at both sides of the ballot. Sometimes, your ballot has choices on both sides.
- Can I look at my ballot before I go to vote? Enter your home address in Ballotpedia's Sample Ballot Lookup. This tool will give you a "sample ballot," which will show you what will be on your ballot when you vote.

VOTING IN PERSON

- Where do I need to go to vote? The place where you go to vote in person is called a polling place. You can find your local polling place through the Texas Secretary of State's website. Find your polling place.
- Do I need an ID to vote in person? This state requires voters to show a photo ID to vote in person. If you don't have a photo ID because it was too difficult to get one, you can bring a supporting form of ID and sign an affidavit to vote. A supporting form of ID can be your birth certificate, a utility bill, a government check, or any other government document with your name and address. An affidavit is a written statement. When someone signs an affidavit, they promise that they are telling the truth. Learn about voter ID.
- What if I need help with filling out my ballot? You are allowed to have someone help you fill out your ballot.
- Who can help me with filling out my ballot? You may choose someone you know to help you vote or ask for help from a poll worker at the polling place. Your boss cannot help you vote. If you are part of a labor union at work, the person who helps you vote cannot be your labor union representative. Learn about labor unions on our resource page.

- Can I vote before Election Day? This state allows any voter to vote in person before Election Day during the Early Voting period. The early voting period starts on Tuesday, February 20 and ends on Friday, March 1. Vote early to avoid lines on Election Day!
- Can I vote outside of the polling place if it is inaccessible? This state allows voters to vote outside the polling place if it is inaccessible. This is called curbside voting. Contact the local election office for more information about curbside voting.

VOTING BY MAIL

- Can I vote by mail? If you have a disability or you will be away from home on Election Day, you may vote by mail in this state. (If a polling place is not accessible to people with disabilities, this is another way for you to vote.)
- Do I need an ID to vote by mail? Yes, you must include a Texas driver's license number, non-driver state ID number, an election identification certificate number, or the last four numbers of your Social Security number with your ballot. If you don't have any of these numbers, check the box on the return envelope that says that you don't have them.
- How do I request a mail ballot? You must request a ballot online or through the local election office by mail. Request your ballot.
- Can I get an electronic vote by mail ballot? This state does not have an electronic ballot available for voters with disabilities, so you must vote on a paper ballot. _
- What is the deadline for requesting my ballot? The last day to request your ballot is Friday, February 23. Request your ballot as soon as possible to make sure that you receive your ballot on time.

- What if I need help with filling out my ballot? You are allowed to have someone help you fill out your ballot. The person who helps you may need to complete a form called an affidavit to be returned with the ballot. An affidavit is a written statement. When someone signs an affidavit, they promise that they are telling the truth.
- Do I need to sign my ballot envelope? Follow the instructions on the envelope to sign your envelope when asked. This state requires this signature to match the signature on your voter registration form.
- How do I return my ballot? You can return your ballot by mail or deliver it to the local election office on Election Day. If you are returning your ballot by mail, it must be postmarked by 7 p.m. on Election Day, Tuesday, March 5, and received by 5 p.m. the day after Election Day, Wednesday, March 6. If you are delivering your ballot, it must be received by 7 p.m. on Election Day, Tuesday, March 5.
- Can someone return my ballot for me? Yes, you may choose to have someone return your ballot for you. You must put your helper's name and address on the ballot envelope, and your helper must sign the envelope.
- Can I track my ballot? Yes, you can track your ballot online to see if the local election office has received it. You can do this on the Texas Secretary of State's website. Track your ballot.
