

HOW TO VOTE IN HAWAII

A Quick Guide for People with Disabilities Voting in the State Primary Election on Saturday, August 10, 2024

Note: There are lots of different words and phrases used in voting and elections. We explain some of these words and phrases in this guide. Other definitions and examples can be found in our Voting Language Resource.

There are also phrases that might change based on where you live. For example, in this guide, we use the term "local election office." In some cities and towns, this office might have a different name. Your local election office might be called the county clerk, county election commission, board of elections, or something else. You can find that information by clicking on the links for each state that we have included in the guide.

REGISTERING TO VOTE

- How can I register to vote?
 - You can find out if you are already registered by visiting vote411.org.
 - Register to vote online at Hawaii's online voter registration website.

- Register to vote by downloading, filling out, and returning the Hawaii voter registration form.
- When do I need to register? If you are registering by mail, the voter registration deadline is Wednesday, July 31. The deadline to register online or in person to vote is Election Day, Saturday, August 10.
- Do I need an identification (ID) to register? You will need a driver's license or non-driver state ID to register to vote. You can use your Social Security number if you don't have a driver's license or non-driver state ID.
- Can I vote if I have a disability? Yes! People with disabilities who are 18 years old or older have the right to vote. Your vote matters and is protected by laws to make sure voting is accessible, independent, and private.
- Can I vote if I have a guardian? In this state, just having a guardian does not automatically take away your right to vote. However, sometimes a court may decide that you cannot vote. If you are not sure, you can check your guardianship order. If your guardianship order does not say anything about voting, this means you can still vote! Your right has only been taken away if your order directly says that. For help understanding your right to vote and guardianship, contact the local Protection and Advocacy Agency \(P&A\).
- Can I vote if I have gone to jail or prison? If you have gone to jail or prison, you should check to see if you are allowed to vote. Some states take away your right to vote if you have gone to jail or prison. Learn about voting rights for people who have gone to jail or prison. You can also learn more from the Campaign Legal Center or contact the local P&A.

LEARNING ABOUT THE ISSUES

- What is a primary election? In some elections, only one person from each political party can run for an elected official position. For example, only 1 Democrat candidate and 1 Republican candidate can run in a race to become a Senator or Representative. But many people want to be elected officials, so the state hosts two elections. In the first election, every party votes on who their candidate will be. This is a primary election. Then, there is a second election that happens later with the winners of the primary election. This is the general election. In the general election, everyone votes for which of these candidates they want to elect to each office.

- What is a ballot? A ballot is a list of who and what you are voting for. Your ballot will list candidates who are running for different offices, such as Senator or Representative. You vote by marking your choice on the ballot. If you are voting by marking a paper ballot and not using a voting machine, make sure to look at both sides of the ballot. Sometimes, your ballot has choices on both sides.
- What is a ballot measure? Sometimes, your ballot will have ballot measures. A ballot measure is a law, issue, or question that you can vote on. Voters get to decide if they agree or disagree with the ballot measure by voting yes to agree or no to disagree. Learn about ballot measures on our resource page.
- Can I look at my ballot before I go to vote? Enter your home address in Ballotpedia's Sample Ballot Lookup. This tool will give you a "sample ballot," which will show you what will be on your ballot when you vote.

VOTING IN PERSON

- Where do I need to go to vote? Most voters in Hawaii vote by mail. Learn about voting by mail below. If you need help voting or you want to vote in person, you can go to a voter service center. Contact the local election office for information about the location and hours of voter service centers.

- Do I need an ID to vote in person? In this state, voters are asked to show an ID to vote in person. If you don't have an ID, you must tell the poll worker your name, address, and date of birth. Learn about voter ID.
- What if I need help with filling out my ballot? You are allowed to have someone help you fill out your ballot.
- Who can help me with filling out my ballot? You may choose someone you know to help you vote or ask for help from a poll worker at the voter service center. Your boss cannot help you vote. If you are part of a labor union at work, the person who helps you vote cannot be your labor union representative. Learn about labor unions on our resource page.
- Can I vote before Election Day? This state allows any voter to vote in person before Election Day during the Early Voting period. The early voting period starts on Monday, July 29. Vote early to avoid lines on Election Day!
- Can I vote outside of the voter service center if it is inaccessible? This state allows voters to vote outside the voter service center if it is inaccessible or the voter cannot leave their car. This is called curbside voting. Contact the local election office for more information about curbside voting.

VOTING BY MAIL

- Can I vote by mail? Any voter in this state can vote by mail. (If a voter service center is not accessible to people with disabilities, this is another way for you to vote.)
- Do I need an ID to vote by mail? No, you do not need an ID when voting by mail unless you are voting for the first time in a federal election in Hawaii. Federal elections happen in even-numbered years. Learn about federal elections on our resource page.

- How do I request a mail ballot? If you are registered to vote, the local election office will automatically send you a mail ballot. Be sure to register by the voter registration deadline to vote by mail.
- Can I get an electronic vote by mail ballot? This state allows some voters with disabilities to request a ballot that they can fill out and return electronically. In Hawaii, this is called an Alternate Format Ballot. Request an Alternate Format Ballot.
- What is the deadline for requesting my ballot? If you are registered to vote, Hawaii will automatically send you a mail ballot. The deadline for requesting a ballot to be sent to an address that is not your home address is Saturday, August 3.
- What if I need help with filling out my ballot? You are allowed to have someone help you fill out your ballot. The person who helps you may need to complete a form called an affidavit to be returned with the ballot. An affidavit is a written statement. When someone signs an affidavit, they promise that they are telling the truth.
- Do I need to sign my ballot envelope? Follow the instructions on the envelope to sign your envelope when asked. This state requires this signature to match the signature on your voter registration form.
- How do I return my ballot? You can return your ballot by mail or deliver it to a voter service center or drop box. Your ballot must be received by 7 p.m. on Election Day, Saturday, August 10.
- Can someone return my ballot for me? Yes, you may choose to have someone return your ballot for you.
- Can I track my ballot? Yes, you can track your ballot online to see if the local election office has received it. You can do this on the Hawaii Office of Elections website. Track your ballot.
